

About 600 video presentations available as from August 2021

On various themes related to the conference topic

Historical and theoretical approaches | Advances in research methodology | Program evaluation and quality in child welfare | Assessment and decision making in child welfare and protection | Knowledge transfer into practice, social work education and training | Politics and evidence based policies on childhood, family, growing up and care | Prevention and family intervention programs, including home-based and community care | Residential child care | Family foster care and kinship care | Adoption and postadoption | Peers and friends | Family and wider social networks | Child abuse and neglect, including safeguarding young people in care | Mental health of children and young people in care | Education and qualification of children and young people in care | Transition to adulthood | Migration and minoritized groups in child welfare | Anti-oppressive and inclusive practices in care | Covid-19 pandemic

By researchers from more than 40 countries

Argentina, Australia, Austria, Bahrain, Belgium, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Brazil, Canada, Chile, China, Colombia, Croatia, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Ethiopia, Finland, France, Germany, Hong Kong, Hungary, India, Iran, Ireland, Israel, Italy, Jordan, Luxembourg, Mexico, Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Portugal, Russian Federation, Slovenia, South Africa, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey, United Kingdom, United States, Zimbabwe